TIMELESS HYMNS FOR A WORSHIP GENERATION

Today's church generation has grown up on the praise and worship choruses that started to be heard in the churches around the world in the late 1960's. These fresh new songs ended up being the songs of choice in most congregations and the hymnal started to gather dust in the pew.

Today, these hymns are being discovered again. Worship leaders in the church are seeing these hymns with new eyes and finding in these hymns what inspired generations before them - music with lyrical integrity, words of praise, theological depth and powerful truths from the scriptures.

What happens when you capture the heart and emotion of worship in the recording of a group of artists and worship leaders who have come together in an act of worship? You have a recording of Timeless Hymns for a worship generation...

The hymns and the hymnal are back - we invite you to join in the worship
