

LOVE'S VAST OCEAN

Original Celtic Music
by Phil Hart

featuring Joanne Hogg

with Brent Miller, Robbie Groves, Kim McEvitt, Ingrid
DuMosch

A beautiful introduction to the memorable lifting melodies of Phil Hart

This talented Irishman has the knack for penning worshipful songs housed in Celtic soundscapes that wash over your soul.

Phil Hart released his debut album, "Love's Vast Ocean", locally in Northern Ireland, in 2001. Since then, he has received feedback and interest from far beyond these shores. Not least of these was an invitation to re-release the album in a different format, on a larger scale through Whole World Media Group.

The March 2004 release of "Love's Vast Ocean", newly packaged, and with many changes, ushers in a new opportunity to reach more people around the world with Phil's unique and sensitive style of worship.

New arrangements, new vocalists, and the addition of a bonus 'chillout' version of Phil's song 'Come and Worship', make this new CD an essential addition to your worship collection.
