

WHISPERS IN THE WIND

The Ethereal Beauty of the Panpipes with Orchestral Accompaniment

The hymns have been such a vital part of the life of the church, they encourage, strengthen and provide foundational truths of faith. Today, many in the church are also listening to choruses that have brought many younger people into the church. Don Marsh brings you the most loved hymns and choruses of yesterday and today in this collection. Recorded on the age old instrument of the Panpipes, Don has accompanied this instrument with his orchestra, allowing the music to soar and yet at the same time retain the gentle, soothing ethereal sounds of the Panpipes. Music that is both grand and expansive as well as personal and relaxing. This music gently nurtures the heart and allows these wonderful songs of faith to permeate your life and continually draw you closer to the Author who inspired the writing of such beautiful and powerful music.

The panpipes (also called Syrinx, Pandean Pipes of Nei) is an instrument of great antiquity where musicians perform on them extraordinary feats of virtuosity.

The beauty and mystery of the panpipes rich ethereal sounds are combined with rich lush orchestrations bringing soothing gentle arrangements to some of the most loved hymns and choruses of the Christian faith.

From one selection to the next this collection creates an ambience that leads the listener to quiet gentle reflection and worship.
