Musicians Expressing Their Music and Faith

Hymn Arrangements for Solo Harp

"Singers, writers and poets all use words to express their inner most thoughts. Their words are expressions is their voice – their art form – that can reflect something better than we can imagine in this world. Others sometimes find peace and comfort in their expressions. We live within their souls for a moment."

"Music is my voice. It is my hope that this voice will bring you peace, reflection, and joy as you listen."

— Phyllis Taylor Sparks
